BACKGROUND

Transparency International (TI) is the global civil society organisation leading the fight against corruption. Through more than 100 chapters worldwide and an international secretariat in Berlin, Germany, TI raises awareness of the damaging effects of corruption and works with partners in government, business and civil society to develop and implement effective measures to tackle it.

The Transparency International Secretariat (TI-S) in Berlin is seeking experienced freelance professionals (suppliers) to create, design, draft and finalise media content for print and online publications.

OBJECTIVES, DELIVERABLES & TIMELINES

Suppliers will work on individual projects on an ad-hoc basis, with specific deliverables to be defined on a case-by-case basis according to the profile of the supplier. Together with final files, we may require the handover of project/working files.

Tasks for Graphic Designers would typically include:

- Editorial and graphic design within Transparency International's visual identity
- Conceptualisation and design for publications, promotional material, social media etc.
- Design and development of data visualisations and infographics

For Document Formatters:

- Formatting documents in Microsoft Word according to corporate design rules, including in TI's publications templates.

TI-S will retain sole intellectual property rights with respect to all distribution, dissemination and publication of the deliverables.
