Location of Consultancy: remote, optional travel to IACC host country Vilnius, Lithuania

BACKGROUND

Transparency International (TI) is the global civil society organisation leading the fight against corruption. Through more than 100 chapters worldwide and an international secretariat in Berlin, Germany, TI raises awareness of the damaging effects of corruption and works with partners in government, business and civil society to develop and implement effective measures to tackle it.

The Transparency International Secretariat (TI-S) in Berlin is seeking an experienced and highly skilled professional with leadership qualities, experience working with media and young people to coordinate the crew of selected young journalists that are on scholarship by TI to report on the sessions during the International Anti-Corruption Conference (IACC) that will be held in Vilnius, Lithuania from 18-21 June 2024. For more details on the Journalism Fellows/IACC Young Journalists Initiative and to view past work visit here. It is envisaged that a reporting team of 15-20 from around the world will join the upcoming IACC. This role calls for experts to provide technical support in terms of related equipment and handle the crew during the Conference days.

The International Anti-Corruption Conference (IACC) is the world's premier global forum for bringing together heads of state, global leaders, young people, journalists, civil society, the private sector and more to tackle the increasingly sophisticated challenges posed by corruption. The IACC takes place every two years in a different region of the world, and hosts from up to 2000 people from over 145 countries worldwide. To learn more about the IACC, visit here, and to learn about the thematic focus of the upcoming IACC in Vilnius read the 'thematic tracks' and over 80 workshops here.

Guidelines for handling overhead and travel expenses

Overhead

Regular overhead expenses associated with the Consultants maintaining their place of business, such as rent, telephone, utilities or stationery, are included in the Consultant's professional fee, except where explicitly agreed otherwise in the contract.

Travel

Travel and accommodation expenses will as far as possible, and where applicable, be recovered from the institutions and companies hosting events or using the outputs provided by the Consultant.

Where such cost recovery is not possible, all travel is subject to prior approval by TI-S staff responsible for the financial management of the Project or TI Budget Line that will support the costs of travel. TI shall not issue travel advances to the Consultants. For accommodation or travel by air, rail or coach, they will instead have to contact TI-S that will make travel arrangements on the Consultant's behalf.

All travel booked by TI-S will include travel health and accident insurance with worldwide coverage and Economy class only; accommodation will aim to achieve best value for money up to a 4-star category.

Consultants shall be entitled to invoice TI-S only for local transportation and visa cost (if applicable).

Subsistence allowance (per diems) and expenses for individual meals cannot be claimed. These are part of Consultant's business expenses.
