BACKGROUND

Transparency International (TI) is the global civil society organisation leading the fight against corruption. Through more than one hundred chapters worldwide and an international secretariat in Berlin, Germany, TI raises awareness of the damaging effects of corruption and collaborates with partners in government, business, and civil society to develop and implement effective measures to tackle it. Transparency International advocates for better whistleblowing management and better whistle-blower protection practices.

To ensure that actual and suspected breaches of TI's values and behavioural standards are effectively and robustly managed, Transparency International Secretariat (TI-S) in Berlin is committed to enable the safe reporting of wrongdoing.

It is now seeking for a supplier to provide an external whistleblowing channel for individuals working for and under any form of contract or agreement with TI-S as well as volunteers and past or prospective employees and suppliers.

TI S is now looking at upgrading its external whistleblowing reporting channel to align better with our new integrity system, the standards we advocate for and the new EU Directive on the protection of whistle-blower.

The Secretariat has chosen English as the official language to conduct its activities. This is driven by the fact that the Secretariat is a diverse environment where employees and partners alike come from all parts of the world.
