BACKGROUND

Transparency International (TI) is the global civil society organisation leading the fight against corruption. Through more than 100 chapters worldwide and an international secretariat in Berlin, Germany, TI raises awareness of the damaging effects of corruption and works with partners in government, business, and civil society to develop and implement effective measures to tackle it.

The Transparency International Secretariat (TI-S) in Berlin is seeking a consultant with experience working with films and documentaries that focus on corruption and social justice.

The consultant will support with the design of impact campaigns and facilitate new partnerships with the film's teams.

The consultant will curate a short list of 3 upcoming film and documentaries that are preferably in the post-production phase and have a strong potential to become internationally known.

The consultant will assist the film team in designing an impact plan that includes the active participation of members of the TI & IACC Young Journalist network who would follow up with investigative journalism work on the selected area of focus.

The main areas of the documentaries are Freedom of expression, investigative journalism, dangers and challenges to investigative journalists, impact of their work and related topics.

Additionally, the consultant will design a small-scale pilot initiative bridging the work of film makers and the TI & IACC young journalists
