Title of Consultancy: Video Animator Integrity Pacts

Application Closing Date: 12 October 2021

Consultancy Start and End Date: 18 October – 18 November 2021

Location of Consultancy: from anywhere

BACKGROUND

Transparency International (TI) is the global civil society organisation leading the fight against corruption. Through more than 100 chapters worldwide and an international secretariat in Berlin, Germany, TI raises awareness of the damaging effects of corruption and works with partners in government, business, and civil society to develop and implement effective measures to tackle it.

The Transparency International Secretariat (TI-S) in Berlin is seeking a video animator who specialises in illustration, animation, and storytelling via video to create approximately 5 animations. The purpose of the animations is to portray the complex, diverse and harmful nature of corruption in public procurement and how this corruption can have an impact on limiting, competition, fairness and public goods that are in the interest of people in general.

The animations will be simple, clear, and easy to understand - created in formats for sharing on social media. The animations will be shared by TI on social media (via Instagram, Facebook, tiktok, twitter etc) The aims of the animations are: for people to understand the importance of good practice in public procurement, to engage citizens and the interest of young people in efforts against corruption; to raise awareness about the harmful impact of corruption on people's lives in specific areas related to public procurement. The focus of the animations will be on approximately 5-7 specific challenges and solutions that can typically arise in corruption in public procurement.
